Allowable Subject Matter

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Claims 1-11 are allowed because the prior art fail to teach the combination of the heating value meter for gases, comprising an outer mantle with thermostatically controlled heating and with at least one air inlet for introduction of air and at least one gas inlet for introduction of test gas or for introduction of calibration gas, and a measuring block placed inside the outer mantle characterized in that outer mantle is cylindrical, it is equipped with a heating mantle on its outer surface and its bottom part contains an outer sensor of an first electrical remote long-distance thermometer of the outer thermostatic apparatus placed axially in the wall, and a measuring block is also cylindrical with an axial through-hole, it is located coaxially inside the outer mantle and its upper part is equipped with an outlet and an axially inserted internal sensor of a second electrical remote thermometer of the internal thermostatic apparatus, while the heating mantle and the outer sensor, and also the electrical heating block and the internal sensor, are interconnected via the outer and internal thermostatic apparatus, adjusted for maintaining of a constant temperature value by regulation of an electrical input to the electrical heating block, or of the electrical input to the heating mantle, wherein the measuring apparatus of the electrical input of the heating block is connected to an electric lead of the electrical heating block, in combination with the remaining limitations of claims 2-11.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Conclusion

2. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. The prior art cited in the PTO-892 and not mentioned above disclose related devices and methods.
